

A “Just Peace” Church

Our congregation is committed to working for justice and peace, and to sharing that work with other like-minded persons and groups.

We offer financial support to the wider UCC’s Justice and Witness Ministries and to local and regional organizations. Many of our members contribute their energies and skills to civic, benevolent, and community organizing groups as ways of expressing their social and political concerns as Christians.